

SEEKING A 10-14 YEAR OLD BOY AND GIRL TO STAR IN A FEATURE FILM!

“LABOR DAY”

Directed by Jason Reitman

Director of “JUNO” and “UP IN THE AIR”

Casting by Suzanne Smith Crowley and Jessica Kelly

Starts shooting June 2012 in Massachusetts

HENRY – 13 years old (submit 10-14yrs), Caucasian Male – Henry is a true innocent. He has taken over the role of caretaker and protector to his fragile, reclusive mother Adele. He is an observant boy who understands his mother’s loneliness, but is too young to understand why he cannot entirely fill it. When a new man enters the picture, the friendless Henry is both exhilarated by the relationship and threatened by the prospect that he is no longer needed by his mother. LEAD ROLE

ELEANOR – 14 years old, (submit 10-14 yrs) Caucasian. She is a skinny girl, a product of a broken home, and is newly moved from a big city to live with her father and already bored with the small town entertainments. An intelligent girl, Eleanor has learned how to get what she wants with wit, calculations and her newly-developed sexual awareness. To Henry she is the mysterious hot girl who seems to know everything about the world that he doesn’t. LEAD ROLE
